Eastern Illinois University Hosts Honors Day for Prospective Freshman

The Honors Programs of Eastern Illinois University will sponsor Honors Day on Monday, November 11, from 1:30- 3:30 p.m. in the University Ballroom of the Martin Luther King Student Union.

Honors Day is an opportunity for prospective Honors students and their parents to learn about the unique opportunities for academic development, scholarly growth, and professional preparation available through Honors at Eastern Illinois University.

The program begins with a brief explanation of Honors Programs followed by separate question-and-answer sessions for parents and high school seniors. Honors faculty will field questions from parents, and Honors students will answer questions from senior students.

Eligibility requirements for Honors are scoring 26 minimum composite ACT plus ranking in the top 10% of the high school graduating class. Students and parents interested in attending Honors Day may RSVP by calling 217-581-2017 or 888-440-4664 (toll-free).

Eastern Illinois University emphasizes distinguished teaching in the liberal arts, sciences and selected professions. A traditional, residential state university of recognized quality, Eastern enrolls more than 10,000 students in undergraduate and graduate programs. The university, located in Charleston, also serves the region through a variety of non-credit and off-site degree programs, as well as cultural and recreational opportunities. Eastern's pursuit of excellence attracts well-qualified students of an increasingly diverse population and a teaching faculty active in research and public service who utilize the latest technology.
